

Nathalie Beauregard

Partner, Osler

Nathalie Beauregard is a partner in the firm's Montréal office in the national Corporate Practice Group.

Her main practice areas are mergers and acquisitions, equity and debt financing of technology and life sciences companies, and high growth companies strategic transactions.

Nathalie has given lectures on Business and Venture Capital at the McGill University Faculty of Law and has given workshops within the MBA program of the École des hautes études commerciales of the Université de Montréal and at the Chaire d'entrepreneurship of this university. She has recently given a conference on mergers and acquisitions to the CQIB. She's a founding member of Réseau Angés Québec.

Education

- HEC (Paris) and New York University (Stern), M.B.A (1997)
- McGill University, B.C.L., LL.B. (1988)

Professional Affiliations

- New York State Bar Association
- Barreau du Québec
- Association des MBA du Québec
- Canadian Bar Association
- Financial Women's Association Québec